

FURKS DEFY BRITAIN, MOVE IN MORE TROOPS

To-Night's Weather—FAIR, FROST.

To-Morrow's Weather—FAIR.

THE WALL STREET
EVENING FINAL
EDITION

The

Evening

World.

WALL STREET
CLOSING TABLES.

THE
EVENING
WORLD

"Circulation Books Open to All."

"Circulation Books Open to All."

L. LXIII. NO. 22,163—DAILY.

Copyright (New York World) by Press
Publishing Company, 1922.

NEW YORK, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1922.

Entered as Second-Class Matter
Post Office, New York, N. Y.

S

PRICE THREE CENTS

QUESTION MILLS ALL DAY ON MURDER MOTIVE

MILLS AND WIFE QUARRELLED OVER HALL MONTHS BEFORE MURDER. SAYS NEIGHBOR

Opie, Who Carried Records Telephone Messages, Describes Violent Scene.

WATER IN DISGUISE

Carded Clerical Dress Went by Side Door Night He and Singer Died.

Special from a Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)

NEW BRUNSWICK, Sept. 25.—

Mills, husband of the leading latter of the Church of St. John Evangelist, who was found murdered with the actor, the Rev. Edward W. Hall, ten days ago, was but under rigid examination to-day. The accusers of both Middlesex and Jersey counties piled him with questions from 9 o'clock until 1 o'clock began again after lunch.

James Stevens, the small arms expector, brother of Mrs. Hall, had an appointment with the prosecutors this morning, but had to wait until late afternoon.

He now effort to get information of Mills followed the revelation in spite of his positive statement that the intimacy between his and Mr. Hall had never been the devotion to the Rev. Edward

W. Hall, "than I do for your body."

Information was given by their door neighbor, Miss Millie Opie, telephone was used by the man and the choir leader in an appointment.

Opie said that she had gone to the Mills' house to see Mrs.

W. Hall. The latter was out, but came down stairs just as Miss Opie was leaving.

"There have you been?" Miss Opie said. "The husband asked unpleasantly

at the church," his wife replied angrily in his face.

"You have been over there often," snapped Mills. "You do more than that church and the minister than will do for me."

"And why shouldn't I?" Miss Opie

said. (Continued on Thirteenth Page.)

MISS HOLLINS DEFEATED 7 UP; LOSES GOLF TITLE

Mrs. Feitner Wins First Round Match From Former Champion.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., Sept. 25.—Miss Marion Hollins of the Westchester Club, Long Island, winner of the women's golfing crown in 1921, lost her title to-day in the first round of match play in the women's National golf championship on the Green River course.

She was defeated by Mrs. Quentin F. Feitner of the South Shore Club, 7 up and 6 to play.

(For details of qualifying round see sporting page.)

Mrs. Feitner started off in impressive style, and was 6 up at the turn.

From then on it was only a question of time.

Miss Glenna Collett, Providence, R. I., who with the defeat of Marion Hollins, has become the favorite to win the trophy, walked away with her match against Mrs. H. D. Stewart of Hutchinson, Kan., meeting no opposition from the start. Her game was of the steady brand that would discourage any opponent, and she finished the match on the 13th hole, 6 up and 5 to go. She displayed no sensational flashes, but was never in trouble and her approach, which was somewhat weak in the qualifying round, was nearly perfect.

Mrs. R. H. B. Low, the veteran player of the Merion Cricket Club of Philadelphia, easily defeated Miss Gorman of Parkersburg, W. Va., the youthful holder of the Virginia title.

Miss Alexa Stirling, Atlanta, former champion, won from Miss Elizabeth Gordon, Metacombe, 6 and 4.

Miss A. E. Hardin, New York, defeated Miss Raymond Sherwood, St. Andrews, 6 and 5.

Mrs. G. M. Heckscher, New York, beat Miss Florence Halloran, Salt Lake City, 1 up.

Mrs. H. Arnold Jackson, Greenwich, beat Miss Beattie Fenn, Portland, Me., 1 and 3.

Mrs. Norman Toerge, Nassau, defeated Mrs. Joseph Bydoles, East Aurora, 2 and 1.

Non-starters: Lancelot, Frank Fogarty, Phalaris, Beckna, Buddies.

Flag of Truce, first; Banner Bearer, second; Buckwheat, third.

All started.

AQUEDUCT.

FIRST RACE—Six and one-half furlongs.

Bullion (Burke), first; Quannah (Wallace), second; Harry Burgoyne (M. Fator), third.

Non-starters: Lancelot, Frank Fogarty, Phalaris, Beckna, Buddies.

Flag of Truce, first; Banner Bearer, second; Buckwheat, third.

All started.

FIRST RACE—Six and one-half furlongs.

Valencia (Merimee), first; Cum Sah (Robinson), second; Zealot (L. Fator), third.

Non-starters: Fancier, Equator, St. Isidore, John Joseph, Quesada, Arrow of Gold, Esquire.

HAVRE DE GRACE.

FIRST RACE—Five and one-half furlongs.—Rialto (Keogh), first; Carol (Bullman), second; Sweep Hawk (Bruening), third.

Non-starters: Vigil.

Studio Photo Given Out at Rectory As First Official Picture of Mrs. Hall

TOM WATSON DEAD, STRICKEN BY ACUTE ASTHMA AT DINNER

Georgia Senator Succumbs to Old Ailment Early in Morning.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—United States Senator Thomas E. Watson, of Georgia, died suddenly at his home here early to-day.

Death was said to be due to an acute attack of asthma, from which Senator Watson had suffered recurrently for some years.

He was stricken suddenly after dinner last night and passed away shortly after 3 o'clock this morning.

He was sixty-six years of age.

Although failing health had interrupted Senator Watson's attendance at Senate sessions frequently in the last several months, he was in his seat Friday when the Senate adjourned and his friends believed he was then showing improvement.

The body of the Senator will be taken to his home at Thomson, Ga., at 2:15 o'clock to-day. He had already made reservations on a train leaving at that time to spend the Congressional vacation at his home.

Thomas E. Watson was one of the most fiery and spectacular figures in American politics.

In the Senate he had many altercations, the latest occurring last December during trial of his charges that several American soldiers were hanged in France without trial.

While testifying, the Senator threatened to slap the face of Major George W. Cochen, attached to the General Staff, who had testified in defense of the army. A minute before this, Watson and Senator Vandenberg almost came to blows.

POSTAL MEN RAID STOCK OFFICE AND ARREST ALL HANDS

Promoters Said to Have Cleaned Up Million in Year
on Alleged Fraud.

Post Office Inspectors and United States Marshals armed with warrants raided the extensive offices of the Crager System, a stock promotion concern at No. 140 West 42d Street, and placed several persons under arrest, including Benjamin Crager and Henry Crager, operators of the business. The Cragers were arraigned before United States Commissioner Hitchcock and held on charges of using the mails to defraud. There are 18 persons under indictment in connection with the charges against the Crager system, but most of them are minor employees.

It is charged that the Cragers, working with accomplices in other cities, have cleaned up over $1,000,000 from credulous persons in the past year. The system was to get hold of officers or owners of defunct or struggling corporations and agree to boost the business.

The Crager outfit would form a new corporation and take charge of selling the stock. In the course of time the persons interested in the original corporation would begin to receive offers for the new stock from various cities and persons—all, it is charged, part of the Crager "system."

But the persons approached would have none of the stock, and just at the time when it would appear that they were losing fortunes by not having it in would pop salesmen from

(Continued on Second Page.)

WOMEN DEMAND FULL EQUAL RIGHTS IN G. O. P. PLATFORM

Ask Governor for Plank Favoring Removal of All Legal Restrictions.

MILLER MAKES SLATE.

Remains Firm That Secretary of State Lyon Be Dropped.

By Joseph S. Jordan.
(Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)

ALBANY, Sept. 25.—A new factor in State politics intruded itself on the leaders to-day when a delegation from the New York branch of the National Woman's Party called on Gov. Miller at his office and demanded that the State Convention insert a plank in the platform favoring the removal of all legal restrictions against women. They had the following plank written out:

"It will be the duty of the new administration to remove all existing inequalities of the law as between men and women."

This is the same pledge, according to the delegation, that Lloyd George made to his countrywomen in 1918, after they won suffrage.

The delegation received by the Governor consisted of Mrs. William Blauvelt of Syracuse, State Chairman; Mrs. Clarence M. Smith of New York City, Legislative Chairman; Mrs. Ruth King Henderson of Syracuse, Vice Chairman; Mrs. Charles D'Angelo of Utica, Vice Chairman; Miss Edith Ainge of Jamestown, Mrs. Marcus M. Maries of New York City, Chairman; Miss Marion May, Mrs. Robert D. Stearns and Miss Rebecca Hourwich of New York City Committee.

"Nate's slate," printed below, in the official ticket, so far as it has been made up:

For Governor—Gov. Nathan L. Miller.

For Lieutenant Governor—W. L. Donovan.

For Secretary of State—

For Attorney General—Erskine C. Rogers.

For State Engineer—Roger Black.

For Comptroller—William Maler.

For Treasurer—N. Monroe Marshall.

Gov. Miller yesterday startled the leaders by the declaration that he was not a candidate for the head of the ticket unless the subordinates were to his liking. His statement put all the leaders right up in the air, but when it was sensed and had undergone thorough discussion, the outstanding proposition was that Secretary of State John J. Lyons must be eliminated from the ticket.

Up to this morning no successor to Lyons had been chosen. In the interim the New York County Republican Committee was in session in Manhattan, and Albany was waiting on the result of this meeting.

The word given out in Albany was that the organization was debating upon the proposition of putting Jack Lyons upon the slate of Nate, or making a fight against the slate.

But the wisecracks in Albany had concluded that the hurry call of the County Committee was more for the purpose of entrenching Sam Koenig as the Manhattan leader than helping Jack Lyons to fasten himself in the office of Secretary of State.

Koenig had already served notice on State Chairman George Glynn that if Lyons desired to make a fight for re-nomination as Secretary of State the county organization would, of neces-

(Continued on Thirteenth Page.)

ORDER TO QUIT NEUTRAL ZONE IGNORED BY THE KEMALISTS

SIKI WOULD GIVE
50,000 FRANCS TO BECOME WHITE.

Conqueror of Carpentier
Fears Dempsey Will Draw
the Color Line.

(Associated Press)

PARIS, Sept. 25.

"I would give 50,000 francs to be changed into a white man," said Battling Siki, the conqueror of Georges Carpentier, to-day after receiving an immense ovation from a multitude of admirers in a Paris restaurant. The towering Senegalese said that he was afraid Dempsey would draw the color line.

The new champion is married to a white woman, who comes from an excellent Dutch family in Amsterdam. She is a tall, slender and blue-eyed Hollander. She appeared rather overcome to-day with the sudden fame and attention paid her.

Many of those who have seen the dramatic finish of the Georges Carpentier-Battling Siki fight continue to maintain that Carpentier was clearly tripped by his opponent.

Georges now bears few marks of the beating he suffered, but his physicians are keeping him in bed because of his sprained ankle and fractured right hand. He broke the hand on Siki's skull.

"He has a hard head, that Negro,"

(Continued on Twenty-first Page.)

GEORGES TRIPPED BY SIKI, CINEMA SAID TO REVEAL

Carpentier May Yet Be Given
Decision, French Experts Believe.

(Special to The Evening World.)

AQUEDUCT RACE TRACK, Sept. 25.—A plan to ruin the chances of Tuffer, favorite to win the Stonybrook Selling Stake, the fourth race to be run here this afternoon, was frustrated when it was discovered that a sponge had been stuffed up the horse's nose. The discovery was made after Tuffer was being cooled out this morning after a sharp breeze.

The sponge was removed but the soap and grease made the horse's nostril swell. There was a small flow of blood which followed the extraction of the sponge but a veterinary who examined the horse believed Tuffer was in good enough condition to perform.

Tuffer had not been scratched up to the time the first race had been run.

THE DAILY HERSHFIELD.

"Davey" Hershfield wrote another letter to-day—traction series—attacking Gov. Miller. Same old stuff, same old campaign hokum.

(Continued on Twenty-first Page.)

U. S. Backs Down on Rum Seizures At Sea Outside of Three-Mile Limit

Cabinet Decides to Restrict Dry Enforcement Except When Ships Send Own Boats Ashore.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—The Cabinet at its meeting to-day decided to restrict Prohibition enforcement operations within the three-mile limit at sea, except in cases where ships beyond that limit are in communication with shore through their own crews and small boats.

Prohibition Enforcement officials, it was said authoritatively, would be cautioned to observe this decision.

The subject of searches for contraband liquor beyond the three-mile limit formed the principal topic of discussion before the Cabinet. Examination of municipal law authorizing customs or other operations up to the twelve-mile limit were found by the President's advisers to be out of harmony with international law, and it was held that attempts to carry out the municipal law provisions might involve the Government in embarrassments with other countries.

It was brought out in the Cabinet discussion that in the recent case of the British vessel Grace and Ruby, seized beyond the three-mile limit, the court held this vessel to have been within American territorial waters in effect since she was in touch with shore by means of her own small boats. The decision to restrict operations of Prohibition enforcement officials to similar cases beyond the three-mile limit in future, therefore, was explained as in line with the court's action.

1,000 Cavalry Cross Line From Bigha—Also Reported to Have Occupied Kum Alesi, on Dardanelles and to Have Force of 3,500 With Guns Ready to Cross to Europe.

Kemal Accepts Allies Peace Terms, With a String to it, Insisting on Right to Conduct Military Operations During Conference, Which Will be Held Oct. 2, at Mudania.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 25 (Associated Press).—Another body of a thousand Turkish cavalry crossed the neutral zone from Bigha to-day. This movement is like that at Erenkui, and may have been ordered before the receipt of the Allied note.

Gen. Harrington, the British commander, was declared to be exhausting every channel to secure a pacific withdrawal of both forces.

LONDON, Sept. 25 (Associated Press).—A dispatch to the Times from Chanak seems to indicate the latest reported Turkish cavalry invasion of the neutral zone occurred late yesterday. The message, dated Monday, said:

"This afternoon Turks from Bigha violated the neutral zone, moving due west and commenced to close on the port of Kara-Bigha, where there is a British post of thirty men. Two destroyers are in close support."

The message added that at the time of telegraphing there had been no news of a collision between the two forces.

LONDON, Sept. 26 (United Press).—The Allied Admirals at Smyrna to-day served an ultimatum on Mustapha Kemal that the Turkish forces must be withdrawn from the neutral zone of the Straits, it was officially announced.

It is understood that the leaders of the Turkish Nationalists have forty-eight hours to order the retreat of machine gunners and cavalrymen who have invaded the zone and taken up a position at Erenkui, ten miles south of the British stronghold at Chanak on the Dardanelles.

The invasion at Erenkui, which threatens to upset the Allied peace plans in the Near East, is the second by the Nationalists, who forty-eight hours ago entered the neutral zone, but after their commanders stated they did so because they were under the impression that the British had left, the Turks withdrew.

The seriousness of this situation is aggravated, according to Allied officials, by the fact that it is impossible to explain this invasion away by claiming another "mistake" had been made. It was understood that Sir Charles Harrington, British Commander in Chief of the Chanak area, has been notified of the Allied ultimatum and has been ordered to sell in case the terms of the demand are not carried out.

It was reported here that the Kemalists have at least 3,500 picked troops at Erenkui and that reinforcements are on the way. This, however, could not be confirmed.

Kemal is now at Smyrna, having recently moved his headquarters from Istanbul, before the British lines that are protecting Constantinople. It was presumed that the ultimatum was served on him in person.

The French authorities in Constantinople, according to the British announcement, took the Kemalists invasion up with Hamid Bey, the Turkish representative in that city. British officials, in their announcement, urged that a conservative course be pursued.

A FORD A DAY GIVEN AWAY FREE

Special Daily Prize for Four Weeks
For "What Did You See To-Day?"—See Page 23